Freedom! Freedom!!

On every hand bill posted up, in every paper published by the Republican press in any part of the State. The phrases "Friends of Freedom," "Freedom of Speech," "Freedom of the Press," "Free People," "Freedom of thought" and every other phrase in which the word "freedom" can be made to jingle, is conspicuously emblazoned in almost every line. Did it ever occur to your reader, what the object of all this Shrieking is; are not the people of the State of Ohio, already in, and have they not always been in the possession of all the civil liberty, that an honest white man should desire. Has any one in our State denied or attempted to deny, or take away from our people any portion of their civil liberty? Has the democratic party in Ohio, ever attempted in any way, to infringe upon the liberty of the citizen?—Does not Ohio to day enjoy all her civil liberty, by virtue of democratic votes and democratic measures? Is it necessary to be thus constantly demanding something which we already have, and which no one has ever denied? It is certainly very illogical to presume that the democratic party intend taking away the liberty of the citizen, when every act of the party has been to the contrary. No honest and fair man, will raise the cry to community that he himself is a good man, an honest man, a temperate man, and a very religious man, when no man has asserted the contrary, for leaving out the extremely bad taste of the matter, it is wholly inconsistent with good sense, and the rules that govern human actions. If a man were to come to our town and open a Dry Goods store, or a shoe-maker shop, and immediately commence advertising himself to the world through every possible channel, that he was the most extraordinarily honest, upright, pious and religious person that ever came to town, what we ask you, would be the immediate conclusion of every honest man? Why, unquestionably, that the fellow is a most consummate rascal and cannot be trusted and that these great protestations of honesty and piety, are a mere blind to conceal his villany and rascality from the unwary upon whom he intended to pounce. Just so it is with those who are constantly shrieking freedom. Every shriek that is made is for the purpose of covering up a wrongful act. These miserable shriekers are not made through fear, that some political party will take away the liberty of the citizen, because no one has thought of, or attempted any such thing, but on the contrary thereof, they are made for the purpose of deception and fraud. It is stealing the livery of the Court of Heaven to serve the devil in. Let us examine the question with reference to the right and propriety of our republican friends constantly hissing forth, these dismal shrieks for freedom.

On the 17th day of June A. D. 1851, the people of our State had presented before them for adoption or rejection by their votes the present Constitution of Ohio, which makes her a free State in the most emphatic language, and gives us all the civil liberty a fair minded man can desire. How did these very gentlemen out of whose mouths, now daily, as from a seething caldron issue these hissing cries for freedom, vote upon that question? Tell it not in Gath! publish it not in the streets of Eskalon!! Would to God that a dark mantle could be thrown over this act of theirs, and hide it forever from view. They came up to the polls in solid phalanx and voted squarely against the adoption of the Constitution that now makes Ohio a Free State. Oh, what a love for the poor negro was exhibited in that vote. Hail Columbia, Freedom! happy land, Freedom!! Strange at first view, as it may seem, these identical "Freedom Shriekers" voted directly against making Ohio a free State, voted against the law making the white man free, let alone the negro, and the people of Ohio were compelled to adopt the present Free Constitution of Ohio by a strict party vote, the democratic party voting for the Constitution and the party now calling themselves Republicans, "Friends of Freedom" and many other high sounding names, voting directly against it. We appeal to the Democratic voters of Ohio, who voted in 1851, if what we say is not strictly true. We appeal to you our republican friends if it is not, and so far as you are concerned, shamefully true. We ask you to recollect the next time you give one of your favorite shrieks for freedom that you enjoy your civil liberty, your right to shriek for freedom by the votes of the democratic party and against your own vote. Your rights that you now enjoy to be secure in your person, your personal liberty, to enjoy your own earnings, the glorious privilege of voting, all these you owe to the votes of the very men, of whom it is now said by the Eaton Register, your County organ, to call them "Sons of Bitches," "Stinking niggers," and Slave drivers, is giving the young men, the "Wide Awakes" of our County, "some well timed advice" we call upon every honorable man in our State, and put the question directly to him, could a more stupid, base and vulgar insult be given to the efforts and votes of the men who not only made Ohio free, but are now maintaining her so, and will continue so to maintain her until fanaticism and civil revolution shall crush her forever with the chains of bondage. And we will take occasion to say further that the day of that revolution is yet far in the future, the men who made Ohio Free by their votes, are not yet all dead nor will they be for years to come, and when it does become necessary to maintain this constitution inviolate by force, these very men will appear upon the tented field in defense of it as promptly as they did at the ballot box, and then, as in 1851, just enough of them will be present, to insure an easy victory, and route these countertent sons of freedom at every point. Republicans talk about "freedom" they do not understand the import of the word, they would not vote for freedom if a thousand chances were offered, they voted in a mass against freedom in Ohio, the first, the last and the only time the opportunity was ever offered on the direct question. If our Constitution had not contained the clause excluding African slavery no doubt they would have voted for it to a man. We call upon every democratic paper in the State, to elaborate this question fully, and keep it constantly before the people. One half of the honest republican voters in the State were duped and deceived by republican leaders into making that vote against the constitution in 1851. And these very leaders are now trying to deceive them again by shrieking freedom at every street corner. We say to the democracy of Preble County talk this matter over among yourselves, whenever you meet together, refresh your memories as to who it was in 1851, that met you at the ballot box when you were endeavoring to make Ohio a free State and voted squarely against you.—Ask your republican friend when you hear him shrieking for freedom, why he voted against the adoption of the constitution of Ohio in 1851. If he thinks there was some other little objection to it beside the negro question, ask him when the idea first entered his head that there was any other question in his creed of politics, but the slave very question. Ask him whether he believed at the time he cast that vote, as he now believes that the only mission God sent the white man to America to perform was to free the negro and shriek for freedom. Tell him he now holds his liberty in Ohio by your vote, and not his own. Ask him if he would vote for freedom if he had an opportunity on the direct question, if he says he would then ask him why he did not vote for it in 1851, put these questions to them at all times and places and in every possible form.

A Fact for Laboring Men.

It is said by many intelligent men in our county, that leaving out the towns of Eaton, New Paris, Camden, Winchester, Lewisburg, New Westville and Fairhaven, that our county would be Democratic by a considerable majority. If this be true, and we suppose there is no question about it, it is a fact that every laboring man, and actual producer should look well to. We do not wish to be understood as saying that there are no laboring men in town, but we do mean to say that the decided majority of the laboring classes in both town and county are Democratic. In all of these towns, two thirds of the voters are non laborers, non producers and contribute nothing to our general basis of wealth and prosperity. The majority, the large majority of this class are Republicans, and in this county they hold the balance of power and always succeed in electing the very men that the laboring classes do not wish. The laborers, the actual producers, and the real makers of the wealth and prosperity of this county have it in their power to govern if they will understand their true interest and act in concert. And the fact that the non laboring classes always defeat you in the election is your own fault, look at this question closely then, investigate it, understand it thoroughly, act in concert, and it will be utterly impossible for four or five men in the town of Eaton who never did work, who are now too lazy to labor, and who contribute not one cent to the business and wealth of the community, by sheer political trickstering always to fill your county offices.—Their interest and feelings from the very nature of the position they occupy are wholly antagonistic and diametrically opposite to you, there is and can be no affinity between you. We say to the laboring men, talk this matter over among yourselves, let it be the theme of conversation wherever you meet together, and our word for it, you will see a commotion among the non laboring and non producing gentry. In other words, you will then, have out the cords that holds these clods fast to the wheels of true and real improvement. Never cease agitating this matter until you shall make every laboring man in the county, understand this matter thoroughly. You can then without trouble, elect men to office who recognize with a true and sincere spirit, your right to govern yourselves.

—Lincoln is an Abolitionist.

County Auditor.

The present Republican candidate for county Auditor, Mr. Thos. J. Larsh, is becoming very solicitous about his election and shrieks and screeches for freedom on all occasions, in the most vigorous manner. Let us examine the record of this freedom shrieker a little, and let not the people forget it, when they go to the polls.

In 1850, this said T. J. Larsh was elected by the people of this county a member of the convention that framed the present Free Constitution of Ohio, and which makes the State at this time a Free State and gives to the white man all the privilege that he now enjoys.—Yet, this same identical T. J. Larsh, when the labors of the Convention were about brought to a close and the question was put before that body "Shall the Constitution be adopted" Mr. Larsh voted NAY (See and Vol. debates Ohio Convention page 870). And immediately after receiving his pay from the State for his services, came home and used every effort, within his power both by his vote and entreaty, to defeat the adoption of the Constitution by the people. But the people hearkened not unto him, but adopted the Constitution and made Ohio a Free State, in opposition to the vote and entreaty of this same Mr. Larsh, and he now enjoys his freedom in Ohio, against his own vote to the contrary. He is a beautiful specimen indeed to screech Freedom, and talk about the rights of Freemen. He would not and did not vote to make Ohio a Free State, although he twice had the opportunity of so doing on the direct question; but on the contrary voted squarely against it. Ohio is a free State to day, by the votes of the very men, who are termed by the friends of Mr. Larsh, "Sons of Bitches" "Slave Drivers" and "Stinking Niggers," and we will further add, that they intend to keep and maintain her a free State despite the votes of Mr. Larsh and his freedom loving friends to the contrary. And we say to our friends when you hear a man Shrieking for freedom, ask him whether he voted for the present Free Constitution of Ohio. The chances are as an hundred to one, that he did not, and he will be compelled to admit the sorrowful fact, that the only time he ever had an opportunity of voting on the direct question of Freedom, he voted against it. We say to the voters of Preble county, when you hear one of these Freedom Screechers "roost high," Mr. Larsh is very anxious now to fill the office of County Auditor, and hold up his hand and swear to support this Free Constitution, for which he would not and did not vote.—How he can do this is a mystery! we suppose however, that it is done upon the same hypothesis, that he voted against making Ohio a Free State, and then gets up and most vociferously shrieks for Freedom.

But Oh! Jeff. Jeff. the want of money has a most sublime and soothing influence on the conscience of man, that which was rough before, now looks smooth the wilderness blossoms as the rose, and all creation revels in the sunbeams of glory.

[Communicated.]
MR. EDITOR:—I noticed in last week's issue of the Eaton Register, an article written by a "Wide Awake," denying the charge of being drunk a few evenings since at Sugar Valley; which he says was imposed upon them by a certain individual of Eaton. Now I do not know who that certain individual is; but he reported nothing more than honest men of all parties conscientiously believe to be the truth. Certainly, intelligent sober minded gentlemen would not break into a house as they did, call for whiskey, curse, blackguard and use every insulting word imaginable to the poor woman, while at the same time they knew the husband was absent; does my friend "Wide Awake" deny this? is he willing to stake his $20 upon the truthfulness of this statement? If he is, he shall have the proof and I will have his money.

A NEVER SLEEP.

Hon. S. A. Douglas, is to be at Indianapolis, Indiana, Friday, Sept. 28th. The Indiana papers say the State is sure for Douglas.

Editor Press:—I am most happy to announce in the language of the immortal Toots that the "thing" is did!

Yes! the grand torchlight procession came off according to arrangements. But I am sorry to inform you that from a severe illness I was unable to attend. Thus blasting the fond expectation of many Republicans, who looked to me for a correct report of the proceedings. Still I will use every exertion to get a reliable statement, from a young relative of mine—one in whom I once placed the fondest expectations for the future, but alas! he has sadly disappointed all his relations as well as friends, by basely deserting the faith of his father, and going over to the Black Republicans. And his mind has become so depraved by this unholy alliance, that it seems impossible for the youth to appreciate the difference between a lie and a truth, a negro and a white man? He was christened Adam for me, Phool being his parental title. As Dam Phool he is familiarly known?—Now this youth is an energetic member of the Camden "Wide Awakes," and aspires to a 3d or 4th Lieutenantcy. He may be seen almost daily soliciting from Republicans on the street, contributions, for making flags, burning powder, or some other work of such a nature, that a man of proper feeling would shun. In fact he totally neglects the wants of his family, to attend the wants of the Republican party. For which service he is occasionally treated to a smile from some rich man. As an instance of Dam Phools infatuation I will refer you to his positive assertion, that there was just fourteen thousand "Wide Awakes," in the procession and that from the head of each man shot up just seventy jets of brilliant gas lights! On gently insinuating that a very small per cent of the crowd might possibly be minors, he most emphatically swore that not a man was a day under seventy five, and each and every one had grand children legally qualified to exercise the elective franchise!! Again he most solemnly affirms, that just as the Glee Club had finished the last song there appeared suddenly upon the stage a tall dark mysterious man, in the garb of a "Wide Awake."—That he bowed to the audience with an air of profound solemnity, and with a voice of the deepest bass, he commenced a comic song. It was a campaign rally which he executed, with two light differences from the ordinary performance. First he had forgotten the chorus and next, the time had escaped his memory. With these little discrepancies he finished the piece with such an effect, as to set the vast audience wild with excitement. The shouts and yells were terrific. The bands blew blasts! the fifes filled fiercely! the drums drummed dreadfully. At which the Hon. Judge, with the pink face, rushed wildly forward and violently reversed his perpendicular, with his head upon the floor he stood erect, while his feet were frantically kicking at the stars. And the excited M. D. who is distinguished for nothing, so much as his happy faculty of introducing the Speaker, sprang madly to the top of the centre table, where he danced such a pigeon wing, as would have done honor to any gymnast!!! At the same time each individual of the Glee Club, was struggling violently to embrace the distinguished musician ejaculating in broken sentences, Oh, thou great and glorious votary of the muses, thou shalt most certainly be the next Clerk of Preble County.

Now, you will at once perceive the utter worthlessness of Dam Phools statements, yet he says he is engaged to furnish reports for the Register over a fictitious signature.

I should be glad to tell how report had it, that half the crowd was drunk! And how Dam Phool contradicted this slander, by swearing that but one solitary man was drunk, and how he was beguiled by a fiend in the shape of a Democrat, who hellishly forced down the throat of his victim whiskey, when the parched lips were crying water! water! How the captain was reluctantly compelled to forego the pleasure of making a speech, in consequence of a bad cold. But enough.

Dr. C. W. ROBERT, DEARBORN:—I take pleasure in stating that the medicine I was afflicted with a very severe breaking out of my face and neck, it was very troublesome, I went to your agent and inquired if he had anything that would cure me. He studied a while and out of the many medicines he keeps, he picked out your valuable medicine and having all confidence in him I took it, and an intimate knowledge of the cause of the disorder was removed, and I have never enjoyed better health. You are at perfect liberty to publish this letter for the benefit of suffering humanity.

Yours Respectfully,

Dr. Hall's Balsam.

For the cure of long standing Coughs, bad Colds, Bronchitis, as well as CONSUMPTION, this medicine is invaluable. Its peculiar combination is the result of experience, and an intimate knowledge of the cause of these diseases, and the ingredients of remarkable cures are sufficient proof of its superiority.

See what an old and much expected Druggist says of Dr. Weaver's Cere, it will not only cure Cere, but sore Eyes, sore Nipples, &c.

HAMILTON, Ohio, August 17, 1860.

This is to certify that my wife has been afflicted for several years with Tetters on her hands, and all the remedies which she made use of failed until we commenced using Dr. Weaver's Cere which she has found to be the best remedy that she has ever used, and would recommend it to all similarly afflicted.

We are not in favor of universal boasting (a system often employed by others) of the celebrity of this or that medicine, and we keep our praise until we have positive knowledge of the value or virtue of an article. We judge of the same by its fruits, and when we find a medicine with really curative powers, we at once come out, and recommend it to the public. In the present instance, we cordially recommend to our readers Dr. Richardson's Cherry Wine Bitters.

We know of nothing to excel this for the objects it proposes to undertake.
